

House Resolution No. 2997

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State educators whose significant contributions of time and energy help ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Karma K. Hall of Raymore, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher in the Raymore-Peculiar School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close on May 23, 2008, in well-deserved retirement after seven years of service; and

Whereas, an educator for thirty-three years, Karma Hall previously served as a teacher at Orrick, Lawson, and Excelsior Springs schools and as an aide for the visually impaired at Orrick and Richmond schools; and

Whereas, in addition to her classroom activities, Karma Hall attended the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education Teacher Leader Institute, served on the MoFACS State Board, and served as a Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America advisor; and

Whereas, Karma Hall helped ensure the highest standards of conduct and performance in her chosen field of endeavor through her participation in FCCLA Alumni and Associates, MoFACS, NATFACS, and MoCTE; and

Whereas, Karma Hall is justifiably proud to be known as the beloved wife of John Hall, loving mother of Cheri and Patrick Marks and of Kerri and Nathan Reed, and wonderful grandmother of Brandon Marks, Krista Marks, Dylan Reed, and Baylee Reed; and

Whereas, retirement promises to give Karma Hall more time to pursue such favorite activities as reading, sewing, and scrapbooking:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in the life and work of Karma Hall and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Karma K. Hall of Raymore, Missouri.
